

2010 Flanagan Chardonnay
Russian River Valley
Proprietor's Notes

Our 2010 RRV Chardonnay is our first from this appellation and a precursor of the wines we will be making from our new vineyard in the Russian River Valley. This wine is a Wente clone Chard sourced from a vineyard near our new estate. Our new vineyard is predominantly Wente and Robert Young clones.

Late fall in our new Flanagan Vineyard in the Russian River Valley

The wine displays classic Wente clone aromatics and good minerality. A nose with hints of Chamomile and orange blossom melds into a palate of lemon/orange marmalade and stone fruits. The defining characteristic of this wine is its opulent texture. This is a truly elegant chardonnay that will pair well with innumerable early courses.
